15 Minutes of Fame

The process Hollywood goes through when it puts together a film is the most intense example of teamwork under pressure. That's exactly what 15 Minutes of Fame can offer your executives. The chance to bond, to learn, to make decisions, and have a lot of fun under pressure. What else gives you the opportunity to direct, act, operate a camera, write a script or produce a film while ticking all the corporate development boxes like leadership and creative thinking? ### Rhythm Effect

Bring your Conference to life! Experience the excitement of successful teamwork through the lively use of interactive music & drumming. Our experienced musicians & facilitators guide your people to drum together as one team in a motivating, engaging and fun atmosphere. The result: unified conference delegates who are refreshed and focused.

Rhythm Effect programs use interactive learning to show how people and organisations can achieve shared goals. Facilitators guide key learnings by drawing the link between business performance and team rhythm. Rhythm Effect facilitators have experience in organisational learning and development and combine this with their skills in musical rhythm.

Session duration is flexible to suit your agenda and ranges from 30 minute, through to, full day team building programs.
